

Senator Beutler's amendment.

SENATOR CLARK: The amendment passed. Next amendment.

CLERK: Mr. President, I have an amendment from Senator DeCamp. (Read DeCamp amendment AM0298 as found on page 605, Legislative Journal.)

SENATOR CLARK: Senator DeCamp.

SENATOR DeCAMP: Mr. President, very simply, did not want to get the motor home confused with the typical vehicle because there are a couple of manufacturers involved there and we did want to make it clear that this is limited essentially to other cars and trucks, so on and so forth, and that is what this amendment does and I would urge its adoption.

SENATOR CLARK: Senator Haberman. Senator Haberman, did you want to talk? Your light is on. All right, no further discussion. The adoption of Senator DeCamp's amendment. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay.

CLERK: Senator Clark voting yes.

SENATOR CLARK: Record the vote.

CLERK: 29 ayes, 0 nays. Mr. President, on adoption of Senator DeCamp's amendment.

SENATOR CLARK: The amendment is adopted. Next amendment.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator DeCamp would move to amend the bill. (Read second DeCamp amendment found on page 605, Legislative Journal.)

SENATOR CLARK: Senator DeCamp.

SENATOR DeCAMP: Mr. President, the cruelest hoax that can ever be played on somebody is to promise them a right without a realistic remedy. If you promise the person you are going to solve his problem and ultimately the bottom line it becomes necessary to get into a court room, then for a six or eight or ten thousand dollar car the average person who would be involved can in no way afford to be hiring a lawyer to be battling over a six or eight or ten thousand dollar item. The very existence of this provision which would say simply that if it really reaches this length where it has to go to court, that
